

...could your ministry blossom in TASMANIA?

St Andrews, Launceston is seeking to appoint an ASSISTANT TO THE MINISTER

commencing early 2010. The position will share in preaching and pastoral duties, and also have the opportunity of developing evangelistic and mentoring skills leading others in Christian service.

Applications are invited from suitably qualified individuals who have completed tertiary theological studies and who possess gifts in this area. Ordination is not required, but may be available to those having or obtaining the necessary qualifications. The position will be for 12 months in the first instance.

Further details on this position may be obtained from the address below, and applications together with CV and references should be made no later than 31st Oct. 2009 to:

Rev. Peter Thorneycroft, Senior Minister
St. Andrews Presbyterian Church,
PO Box 294, Launceston TAS 7250